Answers for exercises .............................. 28
Welcome

This e-book is part of a series called Best of The Reader. The stories in the e-books are from The Westcoast Reader. It is a newspaper for adults who are improving their English reading skills.

To the reader

☑ You can use this book in a classroom, with a tutor, or on your own.

☑ Each story has exercises to go with it. These exercises can help you improve your English and reading skills.

☑ You can check your answers at the end of the book.

Three reading levels

There are three reading levels in this book. Here are the symbols for each level:

- Level 1
- Level 2
- Level 3

To the teacher

Learners can read the articles and do the exercises individually, in pairs, or in groups.

The topics can be explored further through discussion or follow-up activities.

Teachers’ Guide

There is a Teachers’ Guide on this website. The guide has ideas and suggestions on how to use the e-books with students.

Acknowledgements

The author gratefully acknowledges the financial support of Capilano University for this project.

A special thank you to the learners and teachers who helped choose the articles for this book.

All of the material in this book first appeared in The Westcoast Reader (1982 to 2009). Some of the articles have been updated. Most of the exercises and activities for learners are based on material from The Westcoast Reader Teachers’ Notes (1982 to 2009).

Maple tree seeds grow in many parts of Canada.

The maple leaf is a symbol of Canada. There is a red maple leaf on Canada’s flag.

Maple syrup

Canada produces about 85 percent of the world’s maple syrup. Most of Canada’s maple syrup comes from Quebec.

Making maple syrup

In the spring, workers put a tube in each maple tree. They hang a bucket from the tube. Sap from the tree drips into the bucket.

The workers collect the sap. They boil it to make maple syrup.

A year in the life of a maple leaf

- Spring maple seeds
- Summer green maple leaves
- Fall red maple leaves
- Winter brown maple leaves

Canada’s penny

For many years, Canada had a one-cent coin called a penny. In 2012, the Canadian Mint stopped making pennies. Canada’s penny had two maple leaves on it.
A coin trick

1  You will need six large coins and six small coins.

2  Arrange the coins in four rows like the ones below.

3  Now, can you rearrange the coins to make two rows of large coins and two rows of small coins?

There is only one rule: You can touch only one coin.
July 1 is Canada’s birthday

In the 1600s and 1700s, people from Europe came to explore North America. Some of these people stayed and started colonies.

Four colonies join together

On July 1, 1867, four colonies joined together to form Canada. They were Ontario (Canada West), Quebec (Canada East), Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick. These colonies became Canada’s first provinces. The other provinces and territories joined Canada later.

When did the other provinces and territories join Canada?

- Manitoba ~ 1870
- Northwest Territories ~ 1870
- British Columbia ~ 1871
- Prince Edward Island ~ 1873
- Yukon ~ 1898
- Saskatchewan ~ 1905
- Alberta ~ 1905
- Newfoundland (and Labrador) ~ 1949
- Nunavut ~ 1999

Canada Day

We celebrate Canada’s birthday on July 1. Many cities and towns have parades. Some places have fireworks in the evening.

Helping newcomers adjust to Canada

Thousands of immigrants and refugees come to Canada every year. They need to learn many things about their new home.

Program helps newcomers
There is a host program in Vancouver called Connections. It matches newcomers with Canadians. Hosts help newcomers adjust to life in Canada.

The Macenas are hosts
The Macena family came to Canada from Brazil 10 years ago. Now they are helping other newcomers.

The Mbonas are newcomers
The Mbonas are refugees from Africa. Yogabo and Alphonsina Mbona have six children. They came to Canada from Congo.

Families spend time together
Paolo and Christina Macena help the Mbonas in many ways. For example, they helped the couple find used furniture and inexpensive winter clothes.

The two families enjoy spending time together. Paolo says, “We like to go out together on the weekend.”
